
SUPPORT OUR STRIKE TO DEFEND USS

“The continued success of the higher education sector is vital to our city and our country. We need to ensure that our outstanding universities’ academic staff feel recognised for their contribution and that this is reflected in fair pay and conditions.

I am very concerned therefore by the proposed changes to the USS pension scheme, which would leave many University of Nottingham staff significantly worse off when they retire.”

— Lilian Greenwood MP
Nottingham South